Daytona Beach, Florida – The Stewart-Marchman-Act Foundation elected new officers at its recent Annual Meeting. Serving for a 2-year term are: Jon Greaves, Chairman of the Board, Melissa Murphy, Vice Chairwoman, Maureen France, Treasurer, and Debbie Berner, Secretary.

Jon Greaves has served on the SMA Foundation Board of Directors in many capacities since it was founded in 1999 by Jim Foster to support SMA Behavioral Healthcare Services. According to Jon, “As a founding member of the Foundation I am reminded of our humble beginnings meeting at Central Baptist with Hal Marchman. While we have made steady progress over the last 17 years we face challenges. In order to be better positioned to enhance SMA’s many and diverse programs we must grow the Endowment Fund. Our forward-thinking board made up of dedicated community leaders developed a strategy to increase the Endowment Fund to provide more and greater resources to support SMA programs, clients and their families. The Foundation thanks you for your support of the people benefitting from SMA Behavioral Health’s excellent services!

Melissa Murphy, an attorney at Cobb Cole and recent mother to a beautiful son will serve as the Vice Chairwoman and is the Chairwoman of the WARM at Vince Carter Sanctuary’s Community Support Council.

Debbie Berner has served on the Board for over 10 years and is a “Benny Parson Award” recipient for her work on the Foundation’s Annual Dinner Gala. Maureen France healthcare executive with Duva-Sawko & Emergency Medicine Professionals and has been an SMA Foundation Board Member will hold her first office with the Foundation.
